

Fine Antiquities

London
Wednesday, 9 December 1992 at 10.30 a.m.

CHRISTIE'S

183

A BRONZE FIGURE OF THE GODDESS SATHI, stepping forward with left leg advanced, her right arm clenched by her side, wearing a long skirt, chased collar and red crown, on integral rectangular base with traces of dedicatory hieroglyphic inscription along the sides, the inlaid eyes with traces of gilding, lower left arm and tip of crown missing, mounted, Late Period (712-332 B.C.)
8 5/8 in. (22.5 cm.) high

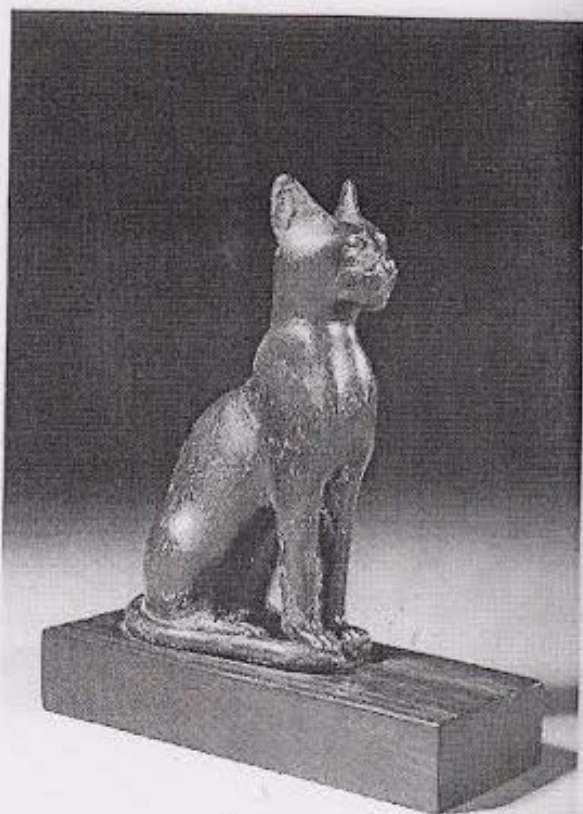

£3,000-5,000

THE FOLLOWING LOT IS SOLD ON BEHALF OF A FOUNDATION

184

A BRONZE FIGURE OF A SEATED CAT, one ear pierced, mounted, 6th Century B.C.
5 5/8 in. (13.2 cm.) high

£5,000-8,000

[184]

VARIOUS PROPERTIES

185

A "KUSHITE" BRONZE FIGURE OF A CONCUBINE, standing naked with wide hips, wearing fringed hairstyle, with detachable arms, lower legs missing, mounted, Dynasty XXV (712-657 B.C.)
6 9/16 in. (16.5 cm.) high

PROVENANCE:

Acquired by the great-grandmother of the present owner in Egypt, circa 1912

£1,000-1,500

186

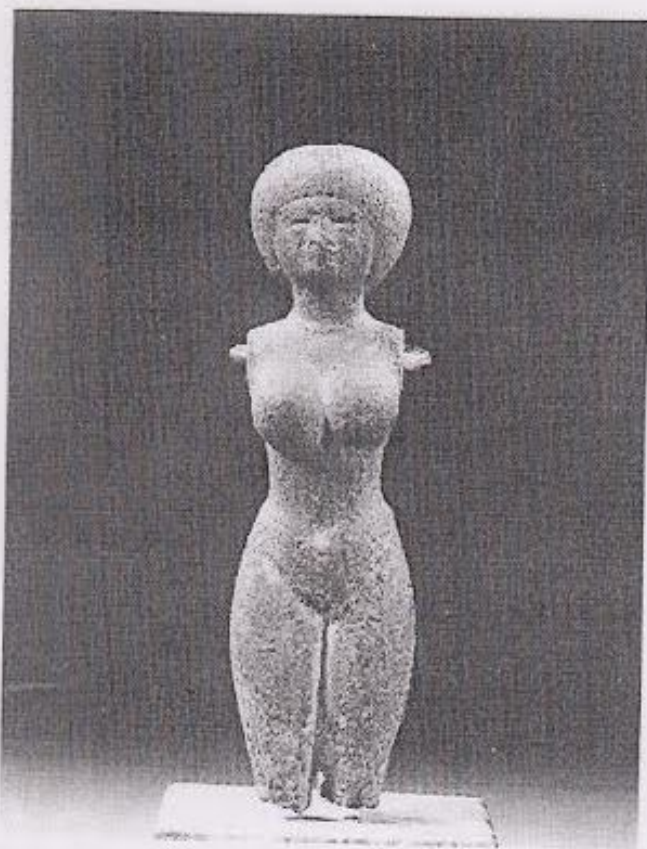

A BRONZE FIGURE OF HARPOCRATES, the nude god striding forwards, right forefinger raised to his lips, eyes inlaid with traces of gilding, the base inscribed with the name of the dedicant, "May Harpoocrates give life to . . . istr, son of Hor. . .", circa 4th Century B.C.
5 in. (12.7 cm.) high

£3,000-4,000

187

A LARGE BRONZE FIGURE OF OSIRIS, the standing god wearing atef-crown and holding crook and flail, mounted, Late Period (712-332 B.C.)
13 5/8 in. (34.7 cm.) high

£5,000-7,000

[185]